

Email &
Electronic
Correspondence
Policy

PolicyWatch Networks, Inc. / eLifeID may, from time to time, send certain email correspondence to its subscribers. However, elifeID will NEVER, under any circumstance, send you an email that contains a web address link to our websites that allows you to access the eLifeID website by clicking the link provided in the email body.

To access eLifeID, you must connect to the internet, open your browser, and manually type the elifeid web address in the address bar.

It is also our corporate policy to never ask you, through an email correspondence, to update your account or provide a link in the email to do so. We will NEVER advise you that your services could or would be suspended or disrupted in any way should you fail to respond to such a request.

Employees of PolicyWatch Networks, Inc. / eLifeID adhere to strict security procedures to protect your information. Should you ever receive such an email, consider it to be FRAUDULENT and an attempt to have you disclose your personal information.

Should you, as a subscriber, ever receive email instructing you to connect to a web address through a link provided in the body of an email message instructing you to update personal information, or re-enter login information or any other purpose, DO NOT RESPOND. Immediately forward the received email to security@elifeid.com then delete the email from you system.
